Government Clyde Stallion

Parties wishing to breed mares to the Clydesdale stallion purchased by the Alberta Department of Agriculture, "Cragie Masterpiece" 18,297, during the season of 1920, will make application to S. G. Carlyle, Live Stock Commissioner, Department of Agriculture, Edmonton, giving name and registration number of mares. A fee of $25 will be payable at the time of service, and a further fee to be fixed by the Clydesdale Committee and the Live Stock Commissioner, will be payable when mare proves to be in foal.

The location of the horse in the province will also be decided by this committee, and arrangements will be made that the service fees in every case will cover the freight so as to equalize the cost to parties residing in different parts of the province. Further particulars will be published shortly, but parties desiring to breed mares should make application at once. The stallion will likely be ready to begin the season about May 1st. The Committee and Live Stock Commissioner reserve the right to revise the list of applications and make such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary regarding the services of this stallion.

S. G. CARLYLE,
Live Stock Commissioner.

NOTICE

It has come to me that I have been accused of making statements on the day of the municipal elections to the effect that Jackson had dropped out of the contest for councillor and that his supporters were casting their ballots in favor of Blake, thereby misleading some of the electorate. I hereby deny making such statement and challenge Mr. Jackson to produce witnesses to this effect.

Lomond, March 12th., 1920.

Editor The Lomond Press.

Sir:—Perhaps the readers of your paper would be interested to know what the U. F. W. A. of the Lomond Local are doing and what work is contemplated for the future in reference to various questions affecting our social economic and religious status, which are getting more and more unsatisfactory as we count time. Men have made a sorry mess of worldly affairs. Can women help, or shall they be compelled to rectify the mistakes themselves? Your attention is called to a cartoon in the Western Independent showing a woman with Mr. Grit in a washtub and guilty Mr. Tery awaiting his turr. There is more truth than farce portrayed in the said cartoon. Now, we as an organization intend to select some phase of the above questions for discussion at our meetings and each member is expected to give an oral or written version of their opinions on the subjects. It is our object during this year is to familiarize ourselves with the root of the evil and if possible to convert order out of chaos and bring the world to its senses. We invite all the ladies in the district interested in the subjects mentioned to meet with us and, if illegible, to join our organization. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. H. W. Burne on Thursday, April 1st., at 2 p. m.

LOMOND, ALBERTA, MAR. 12, 1920

The Editor, The Press.

Sir:—Owing to current rumors we wish to draw attention and ask assistance of the public in regard to disposal of chattels or land held by returned soldiers. It recently came to our notice that some stock owned by one of our members was to be sold (naturally at a great sacrifice) to provide feed for the remainder. This stock is the sole means of his livelihood until he gets a crop. To save it we had to guarantee feed till the new grass is up. The public can render assistance by refraining from purchasing such stock or chattels unless it is with the consent of the soldier owner.

Yours truly,

THE EDITOR'S NOTES

The criminal code is to be ammended so that the "g u m" machines will be all put into banishment. These machines and farming—during the past two years—have both been pretty much of a gamble.

o o o o o

It's fun to hear those hard shelled protectionists talk against the farmers' platform as class legislation. The farmers were never considered a class until they began to organize themselves into some semblance of strength.

If everybody played fair we would be a protectionist, but we cannot tolerate some of the tactics being rubbed into the public by the manufacturers. For instance, the other day we bought a couple of cans of corn. When we got home we found that they were U.S. goods. Yet they were being sold at the same price as Canadian goods. When you take tarriff and exchange rates into consideration it sounds pretty rotten as an argument for protective tarriff. Canned goods can be produced as cheaply in Canada as in the States.

o o o o o

Herb West tells us that the farmers' platform does not demand "practically a clean sweep of the tarriff" as was stated in a former issue of The Press. We'd like West and others like him to use the columns of this paper to express their views and to enlighten the public on what the farmers really do want. Our own opinion is that if a clean sweep is not the ultimate aim of the new party it had better incorporate that as soon as possible. Not even a farmer candidate can argue us into sympathy for the tarriff.

It's not too early to start saving the graded roads.

Start Made on the Mange Eradication

Mr. Duvie, a representative of the Dominion Department of Agriculture, Live Stock Branch, addressed a meeting of stock owners in the I. O. O. F. Hall on Tuesday afternoon, with the ultimate idea of having lifted the blanket quarantine restrictions covering a large percentage of the province. The Deputy Minister gave assurance to the Stockmen's Convention on Dec. 19th. that the restrictions would be removed providing certain conditions were complied with. One of the most important items connected with the proposed removal will be the universal dipping on June 8 and 18. The speaker went into technical details explaining the nature of the disease. The department will advance $400 toward the erection of the dip and will generally supervise the work.

A committee was appointed to cover this district, one man being named in each township, which committee will make it a business to look up the condition of the cattle within this appointed district and compile such information with the secretary, J. R. McKay. Providing no cases and no suspected are accounted for, it will not be necessary to make the dip. The public can readily appreciate the importance of co-operating speedily in this matter. In addition to this the department is sending out riders under the supervision of government veterinaries to inspect all the cattle in the mange area. The personnel of the committee is published below. Dr. McMillan, V. S., of High River, is the veterinary appointed by the department to be in charge of this district.
